

The welcome verse for this week is Psalm 96:2, “Sing to the Lord, bless his name; tell of his salvation from day to day.”

A Church Without Walls
Matthew 28:18-20; John 17:18-19
John 20:19-22; Acts 1:8

The Bottom Line: Your everyday purpose involves an everywhere gospel.

Introduction:

Within every human being is a hunger for meaning and purpose.

We will gladly choose meaning over happiness, significance over success.

We want to know we are making a difference in the world, or, at least, our world.

Tension:

We miss out on making a real difference when we become stingy, and our faith becomes stagnant.

Truth:

God has always worked through people, both individually and collectively, to establish his redemption in the world.

The Father sent Jesus. Jesus sent the Spirit. The Spirit sends us.

Read John 20:19-22.
