

The Door

Bottom Line: Jesus is The Door to the mercy of God, the family of God, and the Kingdom of God.

Introduction:

Over the last decade, social media has set off many arguments. Although some debates get heated concerning politics and current issues, the best kind of internet disputes are the disputes over silly, nondivisive matters.

One of the more recent conversations which exploded over the internet was this: Are there more wheels or doors?

Doors are everywhere around us. Many people estimate that there are 42 billion different doors around the world.

Truth:

as a door. Read John 10:7-10.

Application & Conclusion:

There are people inside and outside of the church who describe different ways to God. They are deceived and they are deceivers. These people and their schemes ultimately end up ruining you. Instead, Jesus offers a single access point to everything the lost soul and the broken world could ever need.

Jesus says he is The Door to abundant life. All we need to do to discover that life is enter in through The Door. It's so simple. Anyone can do it and, more importantly, everyone is welcome. Today is the day to take up Jesus' invitation: Enter into Jesus' life through simple faith and repentance!
